

THE CIVIL WAR IN FRANCE.

GERMANY WILL INTERFERE IF SHE CAN'T GET HER MONEY.

Fort Montreux Attacked—Versailles
Troops to March on Paris—The Communists have been ordered to leave Paris, April 11—Evening—via LONDON, April 12.—Yesterday a sergeant of the National Guard wounded a Prussian at St. Denis. A conflict ensued between the French and the Prussians, and some members of the Commune soon made their appearance. The Prussians were ordered to retreat, and to regulate it. The disturbance, however, soon ceased. The cannonade before Paris has recommenced, and many shells are falling about the Fort de Montreux, and in the Champs Elysees. Placards containing conciliatory measures toward the Versailles troops have been destroyed. The women of Paris have been invited to form a military organization for the defence of the city.

FORT MONTREUX ATTACKED.
Fort Montreux was attacked by the Army of Versailles at 10 o'clock this forenoon, and a violent cannonade and rifle fire is yet in progress.

Since last evening between Châillon and the Southern forts. Infantry are also engaged, and the noise of the mitrailleuses and musketry has been incessant since five o'clock this morning. Cannonading around Neuilly, Porte Maillot, and the Porte des Trinités has been resumed, and is as violent as that on the south.

FIGHTING IS GOING ON
in the Bois de Boulogne and at Asnières. The Commune are forwarding reinforcements to the troops engaged. The wounded are coming in in large numbers. The losses are heavy. The official reports of the Commune claim that the Versaillees have been repulsed on Tuesday evening in an attack on the southern forts, and that their loss was heavy, while that of the Communists was very light. The Commune believe that the attack was intended to make an attempt to carry the Marolles gate by surprise.

A Russian comes from the Vaucluse quarter, the one to the south, part of the city, that the Communists have taken the Park of Issy, where they were in a trench, and that the commandant of Fort d'Issy had been shot by his own men.

THE VERRILLIERS TROOPS TO MARCH ON PARIS.

LONDON, April 12.—A special despatch from Versailles to the London Daily News says that the Satornians will be based in the troops will march on Paris. The Troop has established a battery at Saint Denis, the guns of which point toward Paris. The Curé of the Church of the Madeleine is reported to have been assassinated by a Parisian mob.

A special despatch from Paris to the London Times graph says the Church of Notre Dame de Loreux has been pillaged.

ARRESTS ARE INCREASING.

A despatch from Paris says: A report from Gen. Dombrowski asserts that the result of the Verrillien reconnaissance at Asnières has been disposed against refractory Nationals. A rumor of the death of M. Verraudo, the distinguished journalist, is being spread. Several companies of the Commune Guard are encamped at Asnières. The rest of the insurgent forces are in the trenches.

FRENCH PRISONERS RETURNING.

The Echo of Cologne says the French prisoners are leaving Germany for home at the rate of 1,000 per day. The Echo adds that only those who are known to be favorable to the Louisian Government are allowed to depart.

LOCAL NAPOLEON.

Napoleon is still at Chislehurst, and has been confined to his room several days.

VEILLEURS. April 12.—The cannonading about Paris is less frequent to-day, and nothing of importance has transpired.

ORDER IN MARSERLES.

MARSERLES, April 11.—The trial of the leaders of the Insurrection was continued in the afternoon. It was commenced to-day, and the arrest of M.

day. Tranquillity prevails.

GERMANY WILL FIGHT AGAIN FOR MONEY.

BERLIN, April 12.—The official journal of the day says that Germany will only interfere in the domestic affairs of France when it shall become necessary for the collection of the money due to herself.

THE PEACE CONFERENCE.

BRUSSELS, April 12.—The representative of the Grand Duchy of Baden in the Peace Conference has arrived in the city. No meeting of the Conference is, however, to be held this week.

A New Yorker Missing.

PHILADELPHIA, April 12.—A. E. Kieran, agent of Hecht Proctors, importers of New York, mysteriously disappeared on Sunday. He left his office room and went out at 2 o'clock in the evening to get a cigar for his wife, and never returned. His integrity, temperance, and total abstinence, from food is feared.

OBITUARY.

SPARKS FROM THE TELEGRAPH.

James Plunkett, a liquor dealer of Chicago, has traveled through the heart of Mexico.

The Republicans of Springfield, Ill., have elected their Mayor, and the Democrats the other city officers.

Mr. G. T. Lewis, of Cleveland, Ohio, has bought the rights of the American Advertiser College in Mexico for $182,000.

Seven Japanese merchants have arrived in San Francisco, and will be allowed to sell their goods in Japan for $25,000.

Judge J. P. Wright, (colored) of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, has received $1,000 from Richmond and Danville Railroad for forcibly ejecting colored passengers.

Yesterday the topmast of a schooner was broken by the draw of a cable bridge. Boston, while not a city of cable cars, has a cable car line.

A tremendous influenza epidemic was held in check in New York by the trading of wax for the

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Smith & Green's new dining saloon, No. 14 Broadway, is now open.—Adm.

Julius Schuyler, a well-known railroad agent, is leaving for a tour of education.

The big fire, at Fort Talcott, and the school fence, at Fort Mifflin, are the subjects of Wendell Phillips' emphatically protested against amnesty movement in Congress.

The funds of the New York Living in Asylum were increased $1,200 yesterday by Wall Street.

Michael Kinsley, driver of a coal cart, was locked yesterday for maliciously obstructing a car.

The examination of the senior classes of the Dutch College, Church Street, in West Twenty-sixth street, is now in progress.

A thirsty reader asks the Water Commission to stop the water from running down the open faucets of the drinking fountains.

John Ludwig, of 169 10th Street, having drunk too much beer, was arrested yesterday at the corner of Broadway and West Twenty-sixth street, and the bottle was robbed of $10.

[illegible]